X. PROJECT / SCHEME / STUDY/SURVEY OR INNOVATIVE WORK DONE BY THE STATE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSIONS.

1. Andhra Pradesh
i) The Commission has successfully completed Group-I Prelims Examinations evaluation process within 21 days like never before and declared results.
2. Jammu & Kashmir
i) Jammu and Kashmir PSC has made a remarkable shift towards 100% examination based recruitments as per the amendments made in the Jammu and Kashmir PSC (business and procedure) rules 2021. It has provided a level playing field to all the candidates and improves the transparency of the overall recruitment process.
ii) The pace of completion of recruitment process has increased manifold and the results were declared on the same day, the interviews were completed.
3. Kerala
i) Exam Management Software launched.
ii) Implemented Rotation software
iii) Advice letter made available in digilocker.
4. Madhya Pradesh
i) A “National Seminar and Training workshop” for subject experts engaged in confidential work was organized by the Commission on 19th March, 2023. The motive of the Seminar was to discuss on Different Dimensions of Question Paper Setting for Competitive Examinations. Seminar organized in three consecutive sessions. Prof. Rajesh Lal Mehra, Hon’ble Chairman MPPSC presided over the inaugural session of the Seminar. Participants of all districts of Madhya Pradesh & all over the country participated in the seminar.
5. Odisha
i) Odisha PSC has implemented OSWAS (Odisha State Workflow Automation System) for better and ease process of official files and it’s running successfully. This made the official workflow more accountable, transparent and efficient.
ii) Odisha PSC has implemented Visitor Management System (VMS) which keeps track of each and every visitor who visits OPSC for some or other reasons. The details of the visitor along with her/his photo, purpose of visit, Officer to whom wants to meet, time of entry/exit are recorded. Being a constitutional and sensitive organization, the VMS helps in increasing accountability and implements a safeguard to its functioning.

6. Rajasthan
- i) Dynamic Center Update after Roll No. Generation Process: This module developed and implemented through State Recruitment Portal. This feature enables to update and change a candidate's centre of any examination after generation/allocation of his/her roll no. to a certain centre. Examination Centre can also be changed after Roll no. generation. It is used when in case of the whole centre is changed for management reason or candidate changed their subject or post.
  - ii) One-Time Document Verification Process (ODV): This module is developed and implemented through State Recruitment Portal. One-Time Document Verification is the process through which various documents of candidates selected in one or more recruitment are verified only once to simplify the scrutiny process and to save time and effort spent on documentation verification. Mainly this process is required and executed at the time when the candidate has qualified the exam. A Detailed-Cum-Scrutiny form will be open for candidate to fill online the requirements accordingly. Documents uploaded by candidate are verified One-Time basis and stored in OTR of the candidate. So, the candidates need not to verify their documents for each recruitment.
7. Uttar Pradesh
- i) The statue of Mother Saraswati was unveiled in the commission premises and Bodhi Sangam and Amrit Puskar Sarovar were constructed as places of inspiration.
  - ii) Naming and beautification of parks were done in the name of unknown freedom fighters as a symbol of the freedom struggle under the Amrit Mahotsav of Independence in the commission.
  - iii) On the occasion of the Foundation Day of the Commission on 01.04.2023, a medical camp was organized for all disciplines like Allopath/Homeopath/Ayurveda/Unani, through which necessary medicines were also distributed while conducting general health tests.
  - iv) Keeping in view the good health of the officers/employees, a dispensary of all disciplines (Allopath/Homeopath/ Ayurveda/Unani) was inaugurated in the Commission premises, in which a doctor is regularly present on every working day.
  - v) For the purpose of increasing the efficiency and quality of the officers/employees, 02 days training was organized for all the personnel.
